

UK: Essex International Jamboree 2012:

Do you want to have the experience of a lifetime? The Essex International Jamboree 2012 is a fun packed week of adventure where every day you'll do something new and exciting. From adventurous activities, fun arts and crafts, learning and development games and projects as well as events that run into the night.

Every morning you'll wake up surrounded by thousands of people from around the world. You'll discover new cultures, learn a little of their language and meet a fellow Scout or Guide from another country, and all before breakfast.

Programm: During the week participants can visit ten programme zones. These will include activities which will be adventurous, creative and unique. The programme is being organised to allow young people to challenge themselves, try new things and make friends! As well as all of this, lots of Greenwich will be open during the day and into the evening including the food venues in case you want to grab a snack, shop in the Jamart for all your Jamboree gifts, go to the internet café for sending emails home and surfing the net, the chill out or buy all the photos of you at camp in the media sales area.

Numerous photos will be taken around the site throughout the jamboree and they will be on show and available for you to purchase. Around Greenwich there will be the opportunity to have a go at a number of circus skills and visit Daisy, the interactive 'Big Brother' style diary room. Proving highly popular in the Essex International Jamboree 2008 we are excited to announce the return of Daisy. She won't be hard to miss!
